

SPEEDPAY SIGNS 5-YEAR CONTRACT WITH COLORADO'S OLDEST AND LARGEST WATER UTILITY

Denver Water will offer Speedpay payment services to 1.4 million people in Denver and many surrounding suburbs

DENVER, CO (SEPTEMBER 12, 2018)

Speedpay, a Western Union subsidiary, announced a five-year contract signed with Denver Water, Colorado's oldest and largest water utility. Speedpay will offer tailored payment solutions including eBilling, web, interactive voice response (IVR), auto pay and call center payment channels to the 1.4 million people that rely on Denver Water's services.

"As a Denver-based company, we're incredibly proud to be working with another local business that has such a long and respected history in the state of Colorado," said Frank Lockridge, SVP, Western Union Global Payments and head of Speedpay. "We first started our relationship with Denver Water in 2007, and we look forward to another five years of working with them to bring Coloradans a simple and efficient bill payment experience."

Speedpay has extensive experience helping utilities build a billing and payment strategy that fits individual needs.

"With Speedpay, our customers can quickly and simply access and pay their water bill in a way that fits easily into their lives," said Kathie Dudas, Denver Water marketing manager. "Providing payment options in our ever-changing world helps to ensure the best customer experience possible."

Speedpay partners with businesses to create customizable payment solutions that helps reduce operational expenses, simplifies billing and minimizes average collection periods.
